

LOVE ALWAYS RINGS TWICE

Erotic novel

Mencía Yano

After twenty years and a divorce, Uxía and Manuel meet again and this time they will try to stay together. A story of reencounters and second chances, of the struggle to maintain the love flame burning of an unmatched passion. A novel that will reveal you that love always rings twice.

Synopsis

Can your teenage love be the man of your life?

Uxía and Manuel met when they were students, and lived an intense and innocent youth love, the first one for both, that left an indelible mark on them.

But they broke up because Uxía had a secret she could not reveal. They splitted up and Manuel left heartbroken.

Twenty years later, chance plays its cards and their paths cross again. Will the heavy burdens of the past crush their relationship again? Will they be able to give a second chance to a High School love?

Biography

Mencía Yano is a fifty-two years old writer, a married woman and mother of two. She studied music theory and piano, and several languages. She has a degree in Social Education by the UNED.

She has worked as a teacher, monitor of leisure and recreation, sociocultural worker, and has given lessons to elder people in a Brain Workshop for several years, until she has devoted herself full time to writing. This is her third novel. The first one was titled The winter that changed us, and the second one was Magnolias for Andrea (Tombooktu, 2014).

Sales pitch

-This novel tells the story of a passionate love affair with a bit of indispensable eroticism. Past and present are intertwined through all the book in order to tell us the story of their present mature love relationship and of the teenage love they shared in their youth.

-The reader identifies easily with these characters because they are credible and charming, because they live ordinary lives and their stories are commonplace; they could happen to anybody.

- With Love always rings twice, the reader can experience first hand some of the most famous events of the 80s, such as the 23F military coup d'etat, "la Movida Madrileña"-The Madrilénian Scene-, and the fire that devastated the Alcalá 20 discotheque.

- The author is a prestigious writer with a strong presence in social networks and the blogosphere. She is very courteous to her followers, and has previously published Magnolias for Andrea (Tombooktu, 2014) and The winter that changed us (self-published, 2013). She also contributed two stories to the anthology 152 White Roses (editorial Divalentis).
