

MONSTERS FROM THE SEA

Víctor Conde

The submarine horror anthology

Synopsis

Fear of the dark and the infinite sea has led human beings to conjure up the most astonishing aquatic nightmares, which have taken the form of women, fish, scaly humanoid creatures and dramatic beings

Fourteen of the best writers of terror in Spain – all members of in the Nocte Association - have used their imagination to lead us through these gloomy oceans, immerse us in real terror and the most frightening poetry, and reveal the most ancient mysteries that man has ever known: those that hide under the deceptively placid rhythm of the tides.

Learn about sirens, legendary monsters, Tritons, Nereids, snakes, leviathans, lamias, and those primary terrors associated with the blue and deep abysses... Hidden horrors that inhabit our collective memory since humans learned to look at the sea and to fear its mysteries.
