

Romantic novel

Raquel Antúnez Cazorla

Meritxell and Ariadna are caught inside a police investigation filling their lives with love and thrill.

Synopsis

Meritxell and Ariadna are journalists and friends who see themselves unwillingly involved in the police investigation of the most-wanted serial killer of recent times. Meanwhile different conflicts emerge filling their lives with passion, love, suspense and intrigue. Will they catch the Killer of the Bite?

San Antonio and Santa Catalina are two cities that will be deeply united by a series of events that will make the entire country shake. The protagonists of the plot, Meritxell and Adriana, share friendship although they are very different. Meritxell, a married woman who works at a newspaper, shall begin a special relationship with her young assistant. Adriana, more restless and eager to rise professionally, will use all her resources to mingle with the police and try to find out everything about another murderer. The friendship between the two will be resentful; Meritxell will find refuge in her young friend, and in the course of police inquiries, all gradually coming together an unexpected conclusion will appear. A surprising romantic thriller narrated by two voices, a perfect mix of suspense and passion.

Sales pitch

-Passion Networks is a contemporary romantic novel with elements of action and of a thriller. Two friends, Meritxell and Ariadna, investigating a criminal case, lead the novel.

-Passion Networks is a love story mixed with a police investigation. An excellent plot that is intertwined with two love stories filled with desire and eroticism, with action and suspense, resulting from the case that the two friends investigate.

-Raquel Antúnez is an author from Venezuela specialised in romantic literature. She published her first novel at High School, Contra los Límites. Since then she has not stopped writing, an example is the novel Las tarántulas venenosas no siempre devoran a los dioses griegos. She is a great promoter of her work on social networks, and also of romantic literature in Spanish. In addition to her dedication to this genre, she is a versatile writer able to successfully mix other genres. Proof of this is the Passion Networks, a romantic novel with the best ingredients of the thriller.

-Literary Models: the main sources of literary inspiration of the author are novelists such as Camila Läckberg or Mary Jungsted, although in Passion Networks romance has more weight. In this sense her literature resembles that of Olivia Ardey, V. C. Andrews and Laura Nuño.
